HIGH COURT OF UTTARANCHAL AT NAINITAL
Original Jurisdiction
Dated: Nainital the 17th Februrary, 2006
Bail Application No. 1012 of 2005

Order on the bail application of the accused.

CRIMINAL SIDE

Manoj Yadav
S/o Sri Sita Ram yadav
R/o Village Kothia
Police Station – Kamtaul
District – Darbhanga (Bihar). …….. Applicant

Versus

State of Uttaranchal ……. Opposite Party

In Case Crime No. 482 of 2005
U/s 302 I.P.C.
Police Station Kotwali Haridwar
District – Haridwar

Hon'ble J. C. S. Rawat, J.

Heard, Sri Vivek Shukla, learned counsel for the applicant learned A.G.A for the State and perused the record.

As per the prosecution case, the applicant alleged his name as Vinod Singh in the hotel and stayed alongwith the deceased. They took a room on rent at about 8:30 and 9:00 PM. The applicant left the room on the pretext that he is going to bring the medicine from the market. Later on, it was found that the deceased was dead in the hotel and it was informed to the police and thereafter report was lodged without naming the accused. The statement of Madan Ram and and Nand Kishore has been filed alongwith the counter affidavit. They have sent to commit murder of the deceased by the applicant. There is direct evidence against the accused.

Considering the facts and circumstance of the case in totality, it is not a fit case for bail.

Accordingly, the bail application is rejected.

(J.C.S. Rawat, J.)

Dated 17.02.2006
Shiv